WM. S. STRICKLAND, JACOB EMERICK, JOHN BERRY.

WE were hever before in so good a shape to sell CASH CUSTOMERS cheap goods as at present. Having within the last season made the acquaintance of the largest manufacturers of goods in our line in the United States, and buying exclusively from Manufacturers and Importers, we feel warranted in saying there is not a Hardware Establishment in our County in particular nor in any of the ment in our County in particular nor in any of the adjoining Counties in general, which can exhibit more, better, or cheaper goods than ours. Our sales within the past year having increased one third over that of any former year's transaction in the establish ment, we feel truly grateful in acknowledging the fact, knowing that our friends all over the County as well as adjoining Counties have fully appreciated our efforts to please. The follow-
